Abstract

Tirupanka Ramanuja Jiyar was a contemporary of Sri Krishnadeva Raya of Vijayanagara Empire. He made extensive donations directly to the Tirumala temple during the period 1506 to 1544 AD. A study of research is made on the kainkaryams to be performed to the Lord Venkateswara against donations which were found even today. The kainkaryams were listed and verified and two more Jiyars are added namely sri Manaval Mahamuni and sri Anusandhanam Jiyar.

Key words: Panams, Kainkaryams, Mitts, Tirukodi Tirunal, Sri Bhandaram.

Introduction

Tirupanka Ramanuja Jiyar of Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams (TTD) was a contemporary of Emperor Sri Krishnadeva Raya (1509-1529) of Vijayanagara Empire. His extensive donations directly to the Lord of Seven Mitts had no parallel in the history of the TTD, if compared to jiyars. Even comparison to the monetary donations, excluding jewels and other property by any other ruler, including Sri Krishnadeva Raya, there is no equal to him. The reason for this was due to improper, careless and negligent editing of these inscriptions with extraneous consideration.

Sources

This was due to the failure in identifying this jiyar with Anusandhanam Tirupanka Jiyar of (Vol. III, ins no. 2, dt. 19 Sept. 1504)¹ Koil Kelvi Tirupanka Jiyar (Ins no. 107 dt. 9 April 1516)²; Periyakoilkelvi Tirupanka Jiyar (Ins no. 139 dt. 6 Oct. 1520)³; Tirupanka Jiyar (Ins no. 140, dt. 24 Nov 1520⁴and no. 143, dt. 5 Dec. 1520)⁵; Koikelvi Ramanuja Jiyar (Ins no. 173, dt. 19 July 1527)⁶; Koikelvi Vada Tirupanka Jiyar (Vol IV, Ins no. 46,dt 7 July 1535)⁷and ins no. 137, dt. 8 Nov. 1539)⁸; and Vada Venkata Jiyar (Vol V, Ins no. 94, undated)⁹.

Vijayanagara Jiyars

Though he was Senior jiyar during 1506-1544 AD, he was the Junior in 1504 AD. During his tenure of long years he had donated nearly 13,000 gold coins (panams). The two TTD Jiyars of Vijayanagara period were Appar Srinivasa Ramanuja Jiyar (1609-1645 A.D) who was butchered in invasion of Tirupati by Golkonda Forces under Mir Jumla and after his departure Tiruvengada Ramanuja Jiyar (1645-1686) A.D., who was junior jiyangar under the slain jiyar.¹⁰
Two More Jiyars

It was in this connection the present jiyar, Venkata Jiyar, 1506-1544 with his donations to Sri Venkateswara Swami as outstanding among not only his genre but many others. He was Anusandhanam (junior) Jiyar in 1504 A.D. At that time the senior or pedda jiyar was Manavala Mahamuni from S1425 of Rudhirodgari, corresponding to 1503 A.D till S1428 of Akshaya, corresponding to 1506 A.D. This Manavala Mahamuni is the unique jiyar, in the entire guruparampara who did not have, the appellation - Ramanuja Jiyar. He was shown respect by Venkata Ramanuja Jiyar in one of his donation. The succession list of Tirupati as shown in Epigraphical Glossary is highly inadequate.

Monetary Donations

Venkata Ramanuja Jiyar had made nine donations which were represented by inscription (wide foot notes 6 to 14). The total amount donated by him were 12,915 panam.

The difference in the amounts 13,773 panams and 12,915 panams is due to the payment of money by others like Madhava Jiyar, Kandadai Appan and Ethirajayyan.

Thirdly, list of kainkaryams to be performed against donations were found even today. Fourthly, auspicious occasions for kainkaryams were listed and verified.
